HB 2608, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to the continuation and functions of the Texas Department of Housing and Community Affairs.

Amendment No. 1

Representative Darby offered the following amendment to HB 2608:

SECTION 1.08. Subchapter H, Chapter 2306, Government Code, is amended by adding Section 2306.1875 to read as follows:

Sec. 2306.1875. ENERGY EFFICIENCY MEASURES: MANDATORY DISCLOSURE AND TRAINING. (a) An energy service provider that, in connection with the provision of any energy conservation and efficiency measures required under Section 2306.187 or in connection with the provision of weatherization measures under a program described by Section 2306.097 or another program administered by the department, recommends any energy efficiency measure, including a weatherization measure, to a consumer must provide to the consumer a written disclosure regarding whether the provider receives or has received any financial or other benefit from recommending energy efficiency measures to consumers. The disclosure must specify any particular energy efficiency measure with respect to which the provider receives or has received a financial or other benefit, regardless of whether the provider makes a specific recommendation regarding that measure to the consumer.

(b) Each person who performs state-funded or federally funded energy or green facility audits, energy code inspections, energy performance testing, or other energy efficiency or green analyses or evaluations of single-family or multifamily dwellings in connection with the provision of any energy conservation and efficiency measures or weatherization measures described by Subsection (a) or who awards energy ratings with respect to the provision of those measures must be an independent third party without any direct or indirect financial or other interest in the services performed, other than direct compensation for those services.

(c) Each person providing services described by Subsection (b) is entitled to independently inspect, test, and analyze building systems and equipment to evaluate factors relating to energy efficiency, energy usage, or carbon emissions or other factors in order to determine the appropriate energy or green conservation measures or improvements or to make other related recommendations or perform other related actions.

MAJOR STATE CALENDAR
SENATE BILLS
THIRD READING

The following bills were laid before the house and read third time:

SB 655 ON THIRD READING
(Keffer - House Sponsor)

SB 655, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to the continuation, functions, and name of the Railroad Commission of Texas.

Amendment No. 1

Representative P. King offered the following amendment to SB 655:

Amend SB 655 on third reading by striking the SECTION of the bill adding Section 551.091, Government Code, as added on second reading by Amendment No. 37 by P. King.

AMENDMENT NO. 1 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE P. KING: Mr. Speaker, members—members, if I could get your attention, yesterday, late in the day I put in an amendment on that is intended to fix what is a, I think, systemic problem that the railroad commissioners have been forced to live under. And if you can imagine being three people running an organization that can never sit down and say, "What are you thinking about this," or brainstorm, or discuss, unless they do it in a public hearing, during a formal setting where they are taking evidence. It's just an impossible way to run an organization. I attempted to do an amendment that would let them do what a lot of our agencies do—go into executive session to discuss matters to try to correct that. It would put them under the open government code, where we have very specific procedures for that. I think it's one of those things that seemed like a good idea at the time but after discussing it with you and thinking through it through the night, I think it is the wrong fix for a problem that does need fixing. And so, with your permission, I would like to withdraw that amendment. We'll have to vote to do that so that—I don't want anybody ever saying that any member of this house ever voted for anything to allow an agency to do something in secret. And my concern is that if someone would misconstrue this and say that we voted to do something in secret and I don't want to let that happen. And so, with your permission, I would like to adopt this amendment.

Amendment No. 1 was adopted.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

Representative P. King moved to print remarks on Amendment No. 1.

The motion prevailed.

Amendment No. 2

Representative Turner offered the following amendment to SB 655:

Amend, on 3rd reading, the Turner Amendment No. ____ to CSSB 655, and adopted on 2nd reading, as follows:

(1) Strike added Subsections (a) to (e) of Section ____, and substitute:

(a) The Texas Oil and Gas Commission shall conduct a study of the treatment of tax expenses for the purpose of computing gas utility rates under Subchapter B, Chapter 104, Utilities Code, so the commission can ensure that ratepayers receive the full benefit of all federal income tax deductions and credits included in the gas utility or its affiliated group in the filing of a consolidated federal income tax return.

(b) The Texas Oil and Gas Commission in conducting the study shall examine the extent to which federal income tax law limits the consideration of federal income tax issues in computing gas utility rates under Subchapter B, Chapter 104, Utilities Code.

(c) The Texas Oil and Gas Commission shall report the results of the study conducted under this section to the governor, the lieutenant governor, and the speaker of the house of representatives not later than December 1, 2012.

(d) This section expires December 1, 2012.

Amendment No. 2 was adopted. (Weber recorded voting no.)

Amendment No. 3

Representative Strama offered the following amendment to SB 655:

Amend SB 655 on third reading in the SECTION of the bill adding Subchapter S, Chapter 91, Natural Resources Code, as follows:

(1) Strike added Section 91.902(1)(C), Natural Resources Code, and substitute the following:

(C) rules adopted by the commission and the Texas Transportation Commission, including rules relating to the horizontal or vertical placement of the pipeline facility; and

(2) Strike added Section 91.903, Natural Resources Code, and substitute the following:

Sec. 91.903. RELOCATION OF SALTWATER PIPELINE FACILITY FOR CERTAIN PURPOSES. (a) The Texas Transportation Commission may require a saltwater pipeline operator to relocate a saltwater pipeline facility at the cost of the saltwater pipeline operator to accommodate construction or expansion of a public road if the saltwater pipeline operator does not have a property interest in the land occupied by the saltwater pipeline facility to be relocated.

(b) The Texas Transportation Commission shall notify the saltwater pipeline operator of the relocation requirement and may not require the operator to relocate the saltwater pipeline facility before the 180th day after the date the operator receives the notice. The notice must identify the saltwater pipeline facility to be relocated and indicate the location on the new right-of-way where the saltwater pipeline operator may place the saltwater pipeline facility.

Amendment No. 3 was adopted.

COMMITTEE GRANTED PERMISSION TO MEET

Representative Phillips requested permission for the Committee on Transportation to meet while the house is in session, at 3 p.m. today, in 3W.15, to consider pending business.

Permission to meet was granted.

COMMITTEE MEETING ANNOUNCEMENT

The following committee meeting was announced:

Transportation, 3 p.m. today, 3W.15, for a formal meeting, to consider pending business.

HJR 130 ON SECOND READING (by Branch)

HJR 130, A joint resolution meeting requirements of the United States Department of Education concerning federal student aid by naming private institutions of higher education in the State of Texas that are authorized to operate educational programs beyond secondary education, including programs leading to a degree or certificate.

HJR 130 was read second time on May 2 and was postponed until 9 a.m. today.

HJR 130 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE COOK: Mr. Branch, do you understand correctly that we're passing this joint resolution in response to regulations passed by the U.S. Department of Education?

REPRESENTATIVE BRANCH: Yes, Mr. Cook, we are.

COOK: And can you explain to me what the U.S. Department of Education did that requires this action?

BRANCH: Yes, the Department of Education, as I mentioned, adopted detailed regulations to "clarify" the role of the states in assuring the integrity of Federal Student Aid programs. The regulations require an institution to be established, by name, as an educational institution by a state and is authorized to operate educational programs beyond secondary education, including programs leading to a degree or certificate—that's the stated language of the regulation. All public institutions are created by name in our statutes, but few private institutions are named in law.

COOK: Mr. Branch, historically, we haven't authorized these institutions to operate and grant degrees. Can you tell me more clearly what the problem is?

BRANCH: We do have a process for new institutions to obtain a certificate of authority to grant a degree from the Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board, those certificates have their names on them. The problem is the institutions named in this resolution have cooperated for many years and have been regionally accredited as long as the crediting agencies have existed. Because of the accreditation, they are exempt from the coordinating board certificate process. So, we must take this action to make the DOE recognize these institutions are authorized under Texas law, and beyond that, in this session, the legislature has acted and named them as authorized through this resolution.

COOK: Why did you choose to use an HJR for this purpose when that is usually reserved for amendments to the Constitution or to ratify an amendment to the U.S. Constitution?

BRANCH: That's a fair question. As mentioned, we decided to use a joint resolution because we, because it requires a two-thirds majority of both the house and the senate to pass a joint resolution and we believe that that should be a sufficient demonstration of state action—we're not exactly sure what that means, but this is our best attempt to comply with the federal regulations.

(Speaker in the chair)

CSHB 8 ON SECOND READING

(by Darby, Geren, R. Anderson, Pitts, Menendez, et al.)

CSHB 8, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to prohibiting certain private transfer fees and the preservation of private real property rights; providing penalties.

CSHB 8 was read second time on May 2, amendments were offered and disposed of, and CSHB 8 was postponed until 9 a.m. today.

CSHB 8 - POINT OF ORDER

Representative V. Taylor raised a point of order against further consideration of CSHB 8 under Rule 4, Section 32(c) of the House Rules on the grounds that the bill analysis is incorrect.

The speaker overruled the point of order.

CSHB 8 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE ZERWAS: I appreciate you spending a little time with me to just kind of go over some things that you and I have discussed significantly on this bill, and I'm proud to be a coauthor on this bill with you, I think it's good work. Specifically, what I want to do is draw your attention to Section 5.202. It's on page 2, where it relates to certain private transfer fee obligations void. And under Subsection (b), you list nine situations or circumstances that are not considered private transfer fees.

REPRESENTATIVE DARBY: Correct.

ZERWAS: And number eight, that would be one that would apply to a situation where a neighborhood has a golf club in the neighborhood, and for which transfer fees or dues are an obligation to a homeowner to pay if they're going to live in that neighborhood. Is that correct?

DARBY: That's correct.

ZERWAS: Okay. And so, that's considered not a transfer fee under this subsection.

DARBY: That's correct.

ZERWAS: At one time, I discussed doing an amendment with you where number eight, specifically related to the golf club, would be deleted. What would be the consequences of deleting that exemption?

DARBY: Of course, this bill is simply prospective in nature only, so any subdivision that had a transfer fee associated with it for the support of a golf club would still continue in existence. After the bill takes effect, then, at that private property, the transfer fee did not follow into an exemption, then it would be in violation of this act.

ZERWAS: And it would be an unenforceable transfer fee in that situation.

DARBY: That's correct.

ZERWAS: So, if I live in a neighborhood that's built out, that's pretty mature—most of the building has been completed, clearly defined as a tract of land—and after the enactment of this bill goes forward, if I did exempt that, if you did choose to exempt that group, there would still be the requirement of a transfer fee to be paid out in that circumstance.

DARBY: Exactly.

ZERWAS: Only if the person went out and built a new tract of land would it be unenforceable. Is that correct?

DARBY: That's correct.

ZERWAS: Okay, now, the next question would be—is that you have a number of reporting requirements and transparency issues in here, which I wholly support. If number eight was exempted, would the people that had that transfer fee in place—in other words, a grandfather transfer fee—would they still be obligated to do the reporting as defined in this bill?

DARBY: They would be.

ZERWAS: Okay, so, regardless of whether there was an amendment to exempt number eight versus not being in there, there is going to be to continue the requirement that they report publicly and comply with the provisions of this law. Is that correct?

DARBY: Exactly.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

Representative Zerwas moved to print remarks between Representative Darby and Representative Zerwas.

The motion prevailed.

Amendment No. 6

Representative V. Taylor offered the following amendment to CSHB 8:

Amend CSHB 8 (house committee printing) as follows:

(1) On page 6, between lines 5 and 6, add the following:

Sec. 5.2025. EXCEPTION; WAIVER. (a) This section applies only to a private transfer fee obligation created on or after the effective date of this Act.

(b) A private transfer fee obligation is binding and enforceable and is not void under Section 5.202 provided that, before a person is obligated to pay the private transfer fee, the person:

(1) consults with an attorney licensed to practice law in this state or a licensed real estate broker or salesperson regarding the private transfer fee obligation; and

(2) acknowledges in writing that the person:

(A) has complied with Subdivision (1);

(B) understands and agrees to comply with the private transfer fee obligation; and

(C) waives any rights under this subchapter.

(2) On page 8, line 21, strike "VOID".

(3) On page 8, line 22, between "void" and the period, insert ", except as provided by Section 5.2025".

Amendment No. 7

Representative V. Taylor offered the following amendment to CSHB 8:

Amend CSHB 8 (house committee printing) on page 2, between lines 21 and 22, by adding the following:

Sec. 5.2011. ELECTION TO APPROVE APPLICABILITY OF CHAPTER REQUIRED. (a) This subchapter applies only to a private transfer fee obligation in connection with real property all or part of which is located in a county in which a majority of the voters voting at an election held under this section have approved the regulation and prohibition of private transfer fee obligations as provided by this subchapter.

(b) The commissioners court of each county shall order and hold an election in the county on the question of approving this subchapter.

(c) For an election under this section, the ballot shall be prepared to permit voting for or against the proposition: "Approving the regulation and prohibition of certain private transfer fee obligations in connection with the transfer of real property in _____ (name of county) as provided by Subchapter G, Chapter 5, Property Code."

Amendment No. 7 was withdrawn.

CSHB 8 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE RIDDLE: I was reviewing this, Drew, the other night, and I'm going to have to admit, it's a bit little confusing to me. I looked at those who testified for and against, and there seems to be quite a bit of folks who testified against it, including Pam Bailey from Chaparral Management and other community association management corporations like that. And there seems to be a concern with that. Can you sort of address the concern?

REPRESENTATIVE DARBY: I certainly can, I'm glad you brought that up, Representative Riddle. When this bill was first laid out, it was a whole lot different than it is today. We met the concerns of the HOAs. Quite frankly, after visiting with a lot of the people that appeared and submitted testimony when the bill was laid out, they were confused. A lot of them thought that my bill didn't go far enough—they wanted to do away with HOAs entirely, and so they were against my bill because it didn't go far enough to do away with HOAs. When I explained to them this has nothing to do with the HOAs themselves, it's just the private transfer fee that is being administered by the HOAs, we resolved a lot of that concern.

RIDDLE: So that eliminates that transfer fee that can go on for 99 years?

DARBY: That's correct. And there was concern about HOAs. You've got to understand that HOAs normally charge a processing fee or a transactional fee, if you will, to change on the books and the record, on the HOA, the former seller and the owner with the new owner. And so, they needed a perfunctory processing fee to charge in connection with that transfer. They have historically called that fee a transfer fee. So, when my bill says "a prohibition against transfer fees," then they were naturally alarmed that that little $100, $200 fee to change on their records was being impacted negatively. We assured them that that was not the purpose of the bill and we've added language that clarifies that. So, I think we've removed most of the objections that the HOAs had.

RIDDLE: Okay, thank you very much, Representative Darby. I appreciate you adding a great deal of clarity to this. Thank you.

Representative Riddle moved to print remarks between Representative Darby and Representative Riddle.

The motion prevailed.

CSHB 8, as amended, was passed to engrossment. (V. Taylor recorded voting no.)

Representative Farrar raised a point of order against further consideration of HB 238 under Rule 4, Section 32(c) of the House Rules on the grounds that the bill analysis is incorrect.

The speaker overruled the point of order.

SB 257 ON SECOND READING (Phillips and Schwertner - House Sponsors)

SB 257, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to the issuance of "Choose Life" license plates and the creation of the Choose Life account in the general revenue fund.

SB 257 was considered in lieu of HB 238.

SB 257 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE FARRAR: Mr. Phillips, you're aware, I'm sure, of the 2004 Fourth Circuit case, South Carolina v. Rose.

REPRESENTATIVE PHILLIPS: Tell me about that.

FARRAR: Well, in that case, the South Carolina "Choose Life" license plates were ruled unconstitutional in that they discriminated against the viewpoint of those that opposed its anti-choice message.

PHILLIPS: And, you know, that would be an issue if you didn't have the right to bring your anti-choice legislation and to present a plate, or present that viewpoint. We're not limiting anybody's viewpoint. We're just allowing those folks that want to say—have, "Choose Life." And again, to make sure we're clear, this

"Choose Life" license plate—the proceeds from this is going to go benefit adoption and those mothers that have found a tough time in their life and they're going to put that child up for adoption—it helps with that process and it helps those that help those young ladies through.

I think I've shared before the opportunity my wife and I had to have a young lady live with us who made the choice of life. But, her family said, you know, during this pregnancy they didn't want her to stay there. She came and lived with us, lived with our family, and my wife got to be the birth coach and got to see the amazing opportunity of that baby being born, and that new adoptive family coming and taking that child home and that child having an opportunity in life. And that's the type of thing this will help. It will help those young ladies who find themselves in a situation where they are choosing adoption and this will provide for them.

So, I'm not worried about Planned Parenthood—if they want to file a lawsuit, they may do that. I believe we have a good attorney general who will stand up for our Texas rights and deal with that appropriately.

FARRAR: You mentioned earlier that this body—that there's an opportunity in this body to express an opposite viewpoint, so I believe there's an amendment that's been filed that does express that opposite viewpoint. Are you willing to accept that amendment?

PHILLIPS: No, because this is the senate version, because I want to get this bill passed. I'm not going to accept any amendments so it doesn't have to go back over there. I think that this is specifically—we've worked through, I've got bill authors that have signed off on this—and I know some of the bill authors may be okay with some of the amendments, but I have coauthors, and I'm committed to get this bill through, as is.

FARRAR: What do you believe is the likelihood of the opposite viewpoint, of a bill like that, passing this body?

PHILLIPS: You know, I don't know until we see that. It depends on what it says and it depends on what people are going on. But, that's not this bill. This bill is very specific to "Choose Life" license plates. And, I've got a picture here.

FARRAR: So, you actually believe that such a bill could pass this body?

PHILLIPS: Well, you know that's not this bill, and I don't know what it says.

FARRAR: I just want to know what you believe—if this body could actually pass such a thing, or are you just not going to answer the question?

PHILLIPS: I don't know if it will pass this.

FARRAR: Okay, it's fair if you don't want to answer this question.

PHILLIPS: My understanding is, there are those that probably wouldn't want to bring it, because if it passed, it wouldn't sell enough to make a license plate. But, I don't know that. This is kind of what the license plate—would look something like that—pretty standard across the United States.

FARRAR: Does this bill contain any provision that would express the view of Texans like myself who are pro-choice?

PHILLIPS: You can vote against this. This is "Choose Life." It doesn't say anything else, it doesn't say pro-life. It just says "Choose Life" and it goes to adoption. I don't think this discriminates—

FARRAR: I know that, you've said that several times. But, I'm just asking, is there any possibility in your bill for another viewpoint to be expressed?

PHILLIPS: I don't know what viewpoint you want to express other than we're going to "Choose Life" and we're going to support adoption.

FARRAR: So, it's limited to one viewpoint, then.

PHILLIPS: That's the bill that I brought, and again, you're more than welcome to bring legislation—

FARRAR: Okay, that's fair, I just want an answer.

PHILLIPS: —to express those, any other views that you want.

FARRAR: Where does the money from these license plates that's collected, where does it go?

PHILLIPS: Well, as I set out, as you know, as I discussed a while ago, the attorney general will be involved in setting up a panel and developing rules under this section. And specifically, just so we read exactly what it says—

FARRAR: Can you also answer the question as to whether any pro-choice organizations are eligible to receive these funds, while you're looking?

PHILLIPS: Okay, let's just kind of talk about this. What this says is that it may be spent only to provide for the material needs of pregnant women who are considering placing their children for adoption, including the provision of clothing, housing, prenatal care, food, utilities, and transportation to provide for the needs of infants who are waiting placement with adoptive parents; to provide training and advertising related to adoption and to provide pregnancy testing; or pre-adoption or post-adoption counseling. Those are the things that it will be used for.

FARRAR: So, it's limited to only those women who have made the decision to not have an abortion, correct? It doesn't expend any money, say counseling for women that are maybe in between somewhere in their decision? It's only women who have decided not to have the abortion, correct?

PHILLIPS: No, I don't think that's correct. It says pre-adoption counseling.

FARRAR: So that means you've made the decision not to have an abortion.

PHILLIPS: I don't think so, that's not what it says. It says pre-adoption counseling.

FARRAR: Okay, let me ask you this. To your knowledge, do you know of any other specialty license plate the State of Texas has for which a pro-choice organization would qualify for funding?

PHILLIPS: Which a what?

FARRAR: For which a pro-choice organization would qualify for funding? Do you know of any other specialty license plates?

PHILLIPS: We've got so many specialty license plate programs. I don't know all of them. So, I couldn't answer that.

FARRAR: Are you saying you don't know or are you saying—

PHILLIPS: I'm just saying—

FARRAR: You're the chairman of Transportation, you don't know?

PHILLIPS: And we have so many specialty license plates, I don't know what all of them do. I know that I was involved at one time with doing a "Smile Texas Style," and so if you had a pro-choice organization related to that, I don't know. I don't know what their restrictions are. But, this doesn't say "pro-choice" anywhere in here.

FARRAR: But, you're also a huge advocate for your position, so I would imagine that you would know if somebody on the opposite end was receiving any money.

PHILLIPS: I just don't know.

FARRAR: Do you believe that these plates purport to speak for all Texans, or just those Texans with the message that you're promoting?

PHILLIPS: I believe that anybody that wants to get this license plate, and pay for it, that they're entitled to do it under this bill.

FARRAR: Right, and this is a political message, unlike some of the others. So, I'm just wondering if there is some opportunity for someone with a different viewpoint on this political issue to express that opinion.

PHILLIPS: I disagree that this is a political statement. "Choose Life".

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

Representative Farrar moved to print remarks between Representative Phillips and Representative Farrar.

The motion prevailed.

REPRESENTATIVE CASTRO: Representative Phillips, just to get the mechanics straight. So, people would buy the license plates, and part of that money would go to a fund, which would be administered by the attorney general with the advice and counsel of an advisory committee on funding certain organizations that either provide counseling and material assistance to pregnant women who are considering placing their children for adoption, and who do not charge for their services, and that are not related to any abortion-related services. Is that right?

PHILLIPS: I believe that's right, I think you read that correctly.

CASTRO: Okay, do you have an example? Can you give us an example of an organization or two that might qualify under your bill?

PHILLIPS: I don't have any specific ones in mind. I think until they set the rules and go through that, we're not going to know exactly, but I know that there are some non-profit adoption groups that are helping young ladies find the opportunity, and families in this situation. I think probably they would come towards that.

CASTRO: So, I guess to Representative Farrar's question—a group that was philosophically pro-choice could receive money if they met the qualifications about providing counseling to people that are thinking about getting—thinking about adopting, as long as they're not providing abortion related services.

PHILLIPS: And it's even beyond that, they can't refer to those who do, as well.

CASTRO: What do you mean by that?

PHILLIPS: Well, that's what the language says.

CASTRO: Well, what do you mean by that language? What's the legal effect of that language in this statute?

PHILLIPS: I think that's what it says.

CASTRO: They can't mention the word "Planned Parenthood?" Or they can't know that Planned Parenthood exists? What's the standard?

PHILLIPS: "Does not contract with an organization that provides abortions or abortion-related services, or makes referrals to abortion providers."

CASTRO: So, practically speaking, you're probably intending them to not have brochures up that sends them over to a facility that performs abortions or gives them information about a facility that performs abortions. Is that your intent?

PHILLIPS: Could you say that again?

CASTRO: So, practically speaking, I would imagine that your intention is that, whatever center these women—whatever center is receiving funding, they don't either verbally refer these women to any place that might perform an abortion, or at their site give out a brochure or other information about a provider of abortion services?

PHILLIPS: Correct. I think that's exactly correct.

CASTRO: Okay. I'm concerned that on the first page, under Section 402.036, the last few lines of that section, under (a)(2), or actually under (a)(1), it talks about money deposited to the credit of the account under this bill, and then also that this account can be replenished with gifts, grants, donations, and legislative appropriations. So, I have a few questions regarding that. First, are you setting up a line item here that can be funded later by an Appropriations Committee of a future legislature? In addition to—

PHILLIPS: Yes, I think that would allow for that to happen, yes.

CASTRO: But, that is your intent?

PHILLIPS: Yes.

CASTRO: Okay, gifts, grants and donations. So, not only are we dealing with any kind of state appropriations or funds that would be generated from the sales of license plates, but also the attorney general's office may be operating what would amount to a kind of non-profit organization or fund, which would be giving out money to other non-profits?

PHILLIPS: Typically, on these licenses plates, to get them going you have to put a certain amount of money, and so you can't sell plates until the plate is in existence. And so, typically that's where the grants and donations will come that's to put money in there to get those plates started. That's fairly common.

CASTRO: But you would agree, representative, that it would also leave open the possibility that the attorney general or the advisory committee members could continue to solicit, basically, with the state acting as an agent, to solicit donations for this fund.

PHILLIPS: If people want to give money to help those folks in this adoption situation, I think that would be a good thing.

CASTRO: But you agree it could create that situation.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE GRANTED

The following member was granted leave of absence for the remainder of today because of important business in the district:

Rodriguez on motion of Muñoz.

Amendment No. 9

Representative Burnam offered the following amendment to CSSB 321:

Amend CSSB 321 in SECTION 2 of the bill, in amended Section 411.203, Government Code, by striking the added sentence (page 4 lines 6-7) and substituting the following:

In this section, "premises" means a building, a portion of a building, or grounds associated with a building. The term does not include a public driveway, street, sidewalk, walkway, parking lot, parking garage, or another parking area.

AMENDMENT NO. 9 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE BURNAM: This amendment simply addresses the concern that I was raising in my point of order. If you look at the definition in the Penal Code, which is the last section of the bill as filed, it is much more comprehensive than what the bill's been represented. So, this amendment is intended to simply do what the bill analysis said it was going to do, which would allow what the author of the bill is trying to accomplish without allowing them to take guns on other parts of the grounds, of the campus, of the facility, of the business. Move its adoption.

REPRESENTATIVE KLEINSCHMIDT: Members, the statutory language used to define premises is in the Penal Code, it's out there, it's been used. To add another term or premises in the law today just doesn't get us anywhere. It's not practical. It just leads to more questions in the statute. Penal Code's got a good definition.

BURNAM: On the Penal Code—it's defined, is that not correct, in the senate bill? Or it's referred to.

KLEINSCHMIDT: —refers to the section of the Penal Code that defines premises.

BURNAM: Right, and in the Penal Code, the way they define premises is strictly the building—that's not applied to the grounds, the sidewalks, the picnic areas, or any other aspect of the facility. Is that correct?

KLEINSCHMIDT: I believe that's correct—does not include the parking lot.

BURNAM: So, I don't understand. All I'm trying to do is better define what you say in your bill analysis you're trying to do, to make sure it does what you say in your opening comments about the bill. All I'm trying to do is define it to do what you say it does. So, what's your objection?

KLEINSCHMIDT: I think the bill stays a lot cleaner if you don't add a new definition to the statutes.

BURNAM: Well, there's this misrepresentation that's going on as to whether or not we intend to open this up or actually do what you said you did, both in the subject line and the HRO report. We're just talking about honesty in communication about what's going on. So, I'm just trying to get a clear definition.

KLEINSCHMIDT: Well, an amendment ought to clarify the statute. This doesn't help, it simply adds an additional definition into the statutes.

BURNAM: So, what you are saying is, it is your intent in this legislation that it be restricted to parking lots, and not be able to carry guns around, and other various parts of the campus, of the business facility.

KLEINSCHMIDT: This is a parking lot bill. There is no intention for employees to be able to carry beyond their employer's parking lot. It'll let them carry in the parking lot. They can show up in their vehicle with it and have it in their locked vehicle in the parking lot.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

Representative Burnam moved to print remarks between Representative Kleinschmidt and Representative Burnam.

The motion prevailed.

Amendment No. 9 was withdrawn.

SB 894 ON SECOND READING
(Coleman - House Sponsor)

SB 894, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to employment of physicians by certain hospitals.

SB 894 was considered in lieu of HB 1700.

SB 894 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE SHELTON: This session, chairman, we've made some significant changes in the corporate practice of medicine, mostly for rural areas in critical access areas. Is that correct?

REPRESENTATIVE COLEMAN: That's correct.

SHELTON: And so, in doing so, we need to have measures that protect physician autonomy. I suspect I may be the only person in this chamber of employed physicians, and I will tell you they are a pretty high maintenance group. And one of the things that's really important is that physicians maintain their autonomy, so that the—when you go to your doctor, your doctor's working for you and not the hospitals. So, could you share for me what is in this bill that protects physician autonomy from undue pressure, such as, "Doctor, you didn't order enough MRIs this month."

COLEMAN: Well, what's very important here is that, as you said, the hospital cannot force the doctor to do something outside of their practice act. And, within this bill, what it does is set up a mechanism through the medical board of the hospital, and the medical director, with a linkage to the Texas Medical Board on any issues that have to do with having a physician do something that's not within their practice, or coercion. And that physician is to go to the doctor, who is the head of the hospital, to make that complaint, and then that complaint goes to the medical board. No different than our discussion in Public Health about the peer discipline that we have in our medical board system. This allows the medical board to act on behalf of that physician and make sure there's no undue influence against their practice of medicine.

SHELTON: So, in your bill, is their employment dependant upon doing as the hospital says?

COLEMAN: No.

SHELTON: Okay. Now, is it your intent to expand this bill to physicians who work in rural or other critical access areas?

COLEMAN: This bill here today—SB 894—there's no intention to expand this bill any further. The intention, I hope, is to pass this bill off the floor of the house and send it to the governor.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

Representative Shelton moved to print remarks between Representative Shelton and Representative Coleman.

The motion prevailed.

SB 894 was passed to third reading. (P. King recorded voting no.)

CSHB 3468 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE HOCHBERG: Representative Patrick, you remember in Appropriations subcommittee that you served on, we also looked at this topic and I believe we adopted rider language that pretty specifically gave the coordinating board a requirement that they start funding non-semester length developmental courses and modules—if I remember correctly—no later than the second year of the upcoming biennium. Assuming that we pass a budget and that rider is in it, this bill that you're offering, if it passes in this form, would not conflict with that rider in any way and would not slow the implementation of what the Appropriations Committee passed, is that your understanding?

REPRESENTATIVE PATRICK: Thank you for pointing that out. No, it is not intended to slow down any of the appropriations measures that you've described, but it would, in fact, I think, work very nicely with it because it would allow them to know which are the best practices, and also to encourage the community colleges to offer these differentiating courses, and also to encourage the Higher Ed. Coordinating Board to review the funding formulas for that purpose.
