Our dear benevolent Father, we give you thanks this day for this place where we now stand, for the decisions that have been made in this honorable house. Being thankful for our great leaders of the past, and for these great men and women who have been chosen by you and appointed by the state to govern for the people of the great, great State of Texas. We humbly beseech you, praying for divine wisdom.

Grant these, your leaders, to accomplish not only the will of the people, but your perfect will. May each representative from all parties work together in cooperation to accomplish the many tasks set before them this day. I ask for your blessings of health and for prosperity upon all of those in this chamber. Would you reward them for their sacrificial and tireless service for the people of our state. We acknowledge that the decisions made by this house have a far greater reach than our state's borders. Our nation, yes, even our world we believe will be impacted by the decisions of these men and women. Please guide them with your eternal eye and your all-powerful hand. I love my State of Texas and give you thanks for these great leaders, and I ask for your blessings and for your gracious civility to rule over them. According to Acts 4:12, I ask all of this in "the name that is above every name, the only name under Heaven given among men whereby we must be saved," in the name of Jesus. Amen.

SB 321 ON THIRD READING
(Kleinschmidt - House Sponsor)

SB 321, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to an employee's transportation and storage of certain firearms or ammunition while on certain property owned or controlled by the employee's employer.

SB 321 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE LEWIS: What I want to do, if I could, Tim—yesterday, I didn't ask for the questions I asked to be reduced into the journal. So, I want to ask those questions on your intent again. First of all, in the immunity section, it says that the people who are given immunity, the employer, and the employer's agents—

REPRESENTATIVE KLEINSCHMIDT: Correct.

LEWIS: And, I asked you at that time, by the term "agents," is it your intent that agents be interpreted in its broadest sense?

KLEINSCHMIDT: Yes.

LEWIS: So, "agents," as you have it in your bill, would mean the employer itself, its partners, its principals, its officers, its directors, and other employees will all be covered by that immunity. Is that correct?

KLEINSCHMIDT: I think you added in employees there in the end. It would not include an employee that was involved in some action in the parking lot. But, to the extent that they're an agent, officer, director, manager, etcetera, acting on behalf of the employer, yes, it would be—

LEWIS: But it would include any employees who were not guilty themselves—let's say malfeasance with regard to the firearm or failure to follow 52.061—correct?

KLEINSCHMIDT: I believe it would.

LEWIS: Okay, and that is your intent, that those persons also receive immunity. Is that correct?

KLEINSCHMIDT: So long as they are acting as an agent of their employer, which would be within the scope and purpose of their employment.

LEWIS: The other thing I wanted to ask you about—also, in that paragraph, it says that these people are immune from any liability for firearms that are transported onto or stored on the employer's premises. I think it says, "In accordance with 52.061." I think.

KLEINSCHMIDT: Correct.

LEWIS: And I asked you yesterday, and I want to make sure this is still correct, 52.061 had some requirements. You had to be authorized to be in possession of the firearm, and you had to lock your car. It has to be a locked vehicle. Correct?

KLEINSCHMIDT: Yes, it legally has possession of the firearm, either BCHL or a legal possessor of a firearm—

LEWIS: But, as I understand it, it is your intent that the persons who are made immune are made immune regardless of whether the individual failed to lock the car or not, is that correct?

KLEINSCHMIDT: The bill does not seek to create any liability on an employer for the employee's failure to lock a vehicle.

LEWIS: This bill does not place any duty on the employer to make sure that the vehicles are locked or that the person is authorized to have a weapon in the first place?

KLEINSCHMIDT: Correct.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

Representative Lewis moved to print remarks between Representative Kleinschmidt and Representative Lewis.

The motion prevailed.

REPRESENTATIVE V. GONZALES: Okay, to follow up on that again—the concern I think we have is that is the employee is going to say, "I have a Second Amendment right to bear arms. I have a constitutional right to bear arms, and now the State of Texas has given me the right to bear them at my office, and so, you can't fire me, employer, because I've now brought a gun to the office."

KLEINSCHMIDT: Again, this is a parking lot bill only. We are not at the office.

V. GONZALES: Well, to the parking lot. I mean, it's on the premises of the employer's business.

KLEINSCHMIDT: Well, no it's not. According to the definition of the bill, "premises" would include the buildings. The parking lot is not included within the Penal Code definition of "premises." I know I'm being a little technical here, but—

V. GONZALES: Yeah, we are splitting hairs here, because what you're saying is you can leave it in your car parked at your place of employment, is that correct?

KLEINSCHMIDT: If it's in the car, on the parking lot, you're fine.

V. GONZALES: Sure. So, if the employer is to say to the employee, "I know the State of Texas now says you can bring your gun and you can leave it in your car, but I don't want you having your gun here," and you get fired for that reason. Are we giving a right to the employee to allege wrongful termination on the basis that the employee had a Second Amendment right, and the State of Texas, through this legislation, guaranteed that employee the right to bear arms at the place of business?

KLEINSCHMIDT: There is no intent in the bill to create such a right between an employee-employer relationship.

V. GONZALES: In no way are you attempting to change the employment-at-will policy that currently exists?

KLEINSCHMIDT: That's correct.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

Representative V. Gonzales moved to print remarks between Representative Kleinschmidt and Representative V. Gonzales.

The motion prevailed.

Amendment No. 1

Representative Hartnett offered the following amendment to SB 321:

Amend SB 321 in SECTION 1 of the bill, in added Subchapter G, Chapter 52, Labor Code, by adding a new Section 52.064 (page 3, between lines 26 and 27) as follows:

Sec. 52.064. CONSTRUCTION OF PROVISION RELATING TO IMMUNITY FROM CIVIL LIABILITY. Section 52.063 does not limit or alter the personal liability of:

(1) an individual who causes harm or injury by using a firearm or ammunition for a firearm;

(2) an individual who aids, assists, or encourages another person to cause harm or injury by using a firearm or ammunition for a firearm; or

(3) an employee who transports or stores a firearm or ammunition for a firearm on the property of an employer but who fails to comply with the requirements of Section 52.061.

SB 321 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE HUBERTY: We talked a little bit this morning about the intent of this legislation. We talked yesterday, as well, about some liability issues, and I think there are many representatives in this room who have a similar—one of the concerns I had—we brought it up last night—which is, as a premises owner, a builder owner, that has multiple tenants in a building, your bill does not create any additional liability for building owners that have multiple tenants in the building at this particular time. That's your—at least that's what we talked about your understanding is this morning, is that correct?

REPRESENTATIVE KLEINSCHMIDT: My understanding—and it's not the intent of this bill to create any new duties or liabilities for the owners of the properties.

HUBERTY: So a multi-tenant building owner, as an example, that has an employer that says those employees can now bring a gun to a parking lot that maybe they don't own—the employer does not own—I, as a building owner that owns the parking, are not going to assume any additional liability associated with that?

KLEINSCHMIDT: There's no intent on the part of the bill to create any additional new duty or liability on the part of the landowner.

REPRESENTATIVE EILAND: Mr. Kleinschmidt, we discussed yesterday about my concern that this bill does not apply to contractors coming onto a—in my area of the woods—plant premises. And so, what I need to know, to go back and tell my constituents, especially my NRA members—was this the best bill that you could get out of committee and onto the floor?

KLEINSCHMIDT: Yes, it is.

HB 3395 ON THIRD READING (by Callegari)

HB 3395, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to state purchasing preferences for recycled products.

Amendment No. 1

Representative Callegari offered the following amendment to HB 3395:

Amend HB 3395 on third reading in amended Section 2155.445(a), Government Code, by striking "shall give preference" and substituting "may [~~shall~~] give preference".

AMENDMENT NO. 1 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE BURNAM: Representative Callegari, you took on an amendment yesterday, and now today you're putting on an amendment that changes—what, from "shall" to "may"?

REPRESENTATIVE CALLEGARI: It basically changes from "shall" to "may"—it allows them to give preference if a price is 10 percent or less. It's still permissive.

BURNAM: Well, you don't really need the amendment you accepted yesterday if you are only going to say "may," do you?

CALLEGARI: I think it does give a signal that there's a preference to use recycled products, but that they don't have to if it's a cost issue.

BURNAM: Well, no, the bill itself says—

CALLEGARI: I understand that, but it at least lets the departments know that there is a preference to use recycled products.

BURNAM: How does it do that, given the bill itself?

CALLEGARI: If they read it and they see that it's permissive to be able to use—to buy the products, if it's a lesser cost, even if it's a close—it doesn't have to be less, it could be close to the price and still give them the opportunity to buy it if they want to.

BURNAM: So, the legislative intent in this—and I will ask for the following comments to be reduced to writing. Your intent, "may," is to be permissive for any agency that thinks it's appropriate to spend 10 percent or more for the recycled product to do so?

CALLEGARI: If they make that decision. Yes, it's correct.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

Representative Burnam moved to print remarks between Representative Callegari and Representative Burnam.

The motion prevailed.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTIONS
SECOND READING

The following resolutions were laid before the house and read second time:

CSHJR 61 ON SECOND READING
(by Raymond, Lewis, P. King, Deshotel, Woolley, et al.)

CSHJR 61, A joint resolution proposing a constitutional amendment changing the terms of office of a district judge.

CSHJR 61 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE GARZA: Representative Raymond, I just wanted to kind of agree with what Representative Gallego said. Since the district judges are generally closer to the people—in much of the way we are elected every two years, the opposite argument could be made is why don't we elect them every two years? So, I'm actually thinking the four years, the way it is, allows us every four years to consider how those judges are doing in the courtroom. If we have some judges that are not performing, we have that shorter period of time to be able to correct that situation. So, I just wanted to bring that viewpoint to the argument.

REPRESENTATIVE RAYMOND: Well, I don't think that the supreme court—Justice Wallace Jefferson and others on the court don't—I don't think they espouse or believe that judges should not be accountable to the people. But he supports this reform as he supports other reforms in the judicial system that would remove money from the process or at least make it so judges don't have to go and beg for money as often as they do right now.

GARZA: Do you agree that maybe allowing judge races to be non-partisan might be a more effective way to not have the political process of campaigning and raising funds less critical? Wouldn't that be a better way to approach it?

RAYMOND: Well, I mean, if you do non-partisan you're still having to go ask for money.

GARZA: That's true.

RAYMOND: So, that's really what I'm trying to get at.

POSTPONED BUSINESS

The following bills were laid before the house as postponed business:

HB 1395 ON THIRD READING
(by Parker)

HB 1395, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to the requirements to operate personal watercraft and certain boats.

HB 1395 was read third time earlier today and was postponed until this time.

HB 1395 - STATEMENT OF LEGISLATIVE INTENT

REPRESENTATIVE Y. DAVIS: I want to put on the record, because I think it's important that we as a legislature recognize that we're allowing 13-year-olds to drive, right now, a boat—and actually, your bill deals with personal watercraft as well as any other motor boat, is that correct?

REPRESENTATIVE PARKER: That's correct.

Y. DAVIS: And your bill is going to require training for any 13-year-olds that are going to be driving boats?

PARKER: That's correct. It's improving—if you will—safety by encouraging, well, by mandatory education for those that are born after September 1 of '93.

Y. DAVIS: And when you—when we pass this bill, it will be across the board—13-year-olds can drive, if they pass training, without supervision, is that correct?

PARKER: That's correct.

Y. DAVIS: And, to the extent that we're now, in my judgment, being a little callous about this issue—and I respect that this is your bill and you've worked on it all session—do you think that it would be appropriate to have us review the licensing process and maybe separate the personal watercraft and the larger motorboats?

PARKER: Representative Davis, as we discussed, you're my good friend from, obviously, my region, from Dallas County, and I'd be honored to work with you in the interim on that topic. Broadly, I believe it's separate and apart from what we're doing with this slow, phased-in approach to mandatory boater education.

Y. DAVIS: And I just wanted to put in—also maybe mention a couple other things as it relates to the training course you're going to give. Will adults who drive boats—will they have to do any kind of training?

PARKER: I'm sorry, I had a hard time hearing you, will you repeat the question?

Y. DAVIS: Adults that are driving boats—do they have also a training requirement?

PARKER: Well, today, we currently—in the bill, we are exempting those individuals that were born prior to September 1st of 1993. So no, there would be no requirement for the existing adult population. That was one of the things that was very important in working on. In time—let me say this—in time, because of this mandatory phased-in approach, we will cover a larger and ever-growing annually, a larger portion of the population of the adults, but at present, no.

Y. DAVIS: So your—this bill will phase in training for adults as we go?

PARKER: Yes, that's correct.

Y. DAVIS: Okay, and it's also your thought that the Parks & Wildlife suggests or believes that most of the accidents are with the older adults and not the youth?

PARKER: That's the facts that show that folks between 35 and 50—that's right.

Y. DAVIS: And, so the training that's in this bill that will be phased in will be an attempt to get the younger kids and the older folks in there?

PARKER: Ultimately, we'll take in the entire population, yes ma'am.

REMARKS ORDERED PRINTED

Representative Y. Davis moved to print remarks between Representative Parker and Representative Y. Davis.

The motion prevailed.

The secretary of state was also consulted, and as you know, with state agencies, they're not either for or against bills. They're there as resource witnesses, but the secretary of state's office has been very involved with this legislation. No one testified against this bill.

GARZA: So the Texas Association of Business and the other organizations haven't brought any opposition to this legislation?
