Gracious Father, we join together as your children thanking you for another day in which your grace and love have been extended to us. We ask that your counsel, wisdom, and protection be given to our representatives of this great State of Texas. As you have granted each person here the gift of representing your people, we ask that you help them to serve one another as good stewards of your grace.

Grant them the ability to act justly, love mercy, and to walk humbly with you. Grant them the ability to demonstrate humility of mind, regarding the State of Texas and their constituents as being more important than themselves. Help them to lead with great integrity of heart and skillful hands so that success and victory for the people of Texas may be actualized.

As you are faithful, strengthen and protect our representatives and their families. Where sickness may reside, bring healing. Where confusion may arise, bring peace. Where weariness may be overwhelming, overwhelm them with strength. Give them the strength to uphold and remain true to their convictions. Lastly, Father, we ask that though our methods may differ, let our cause be united for the betterment of all people throughout this great State of Texas. In your son Christ's name, we do pray. Amen.

CSHB 3772 was read second time on May 4 and was postponed until 10:30 a.m. today.

CSHB 3772 - POINT OF ORDER

Representative Cain raised a point of order against further consideration of CSHB 3772 under Rule 8, Section 21(a) of the House Rules on the grounds that the general appropriations bill has not yet been certified by the comptroller.

The chair sustained the point of order and submitted the following statement:

Representative Cain raised a point of order against further consideration of CSHB 3772 pursuant to Rule 8, Section 21(a) of the House Rules on the grounds that the bill diverts funds from the state treasury from the general revenue fund to another fund.

Rule 8, Section 21(a) provides:

In order to assure the continuation of financial support of existing state services through the passage of the general appropriations bill, it shall not be in order during the first 118 days of the regular session for the speaker to lay before the house, prior to the consideration, passage, and certification by the comptroller of the general appropriations bill, any bill that directly or indirectly prevents from being available for purposes of funding state government generally any money that under existing law would otherwise be available for that purpose, including a bill that transfers or diverts money in the state treasury from the general revenue fund to another fund.

CSHB 3772 would create the Texas Leverage Fund and move the current Leverage Fund outside the treasury. Representative Cain correctly observes that the bill is on the floor prior to the 119th day of the legislative session and that the general appropriations bill has not yet been passed and certified by the comptroller. As a result, the transfer of money from the current fund, which currently operates out of a General Revenue-Dedicated account, into the new fund outside the treasury held in trust by the Comptroller, runs afoul of Rule 8, Section 21(a). See 83 H.J. Reg. 2019 (2013) (S. Turner point of order on CSHB 11). The point of order is sustained.

CSHB 3772 was returned to the Committee on Economic and Small Business Development.

HB 1183 - POINT OF ORDER

Representative Isaac raised a point of order against further consideration of HB 1183 under Rule 4, Section 32(b)(1) of the House Rules on the grounds that the committee report is incorrect.

The chair overruled the point of order and submitted the following statement:

Representative Isaac raised a point of order against further consideration of HB 1183 pursuant to Rule 4, Section 32(b)(1) of the House Rules on the grounds that an accurate committee report signed by the chair of a committee in compliance with Rule 4, Section 32(b)(1), was in fact invalid because the chair of the committee was absent from the hearing. The point of order is overruled.

The following facts are not in dispute:

- 1) Rule 4, Section 32(b)(1) requires a committee report to "be signed by the chair" or by other certain persons;
- 2) Representative Coleman is the chair of County Affairs;
- 3) The committee report for HB 1183 was the report of a bill heard in and disposed by a vote in the County Affairs Committee; and
- 4) Representative Coleman, in compliance with Rule 4, Section 32(b)(1), attached his signature to the report.

Representative Isaac has failed to identify any other shortcoming of the report. Representative Isaac's sole allegation, that a chair must be present in a meeting in order to sign a committee report, is unsupported by the rule he cites or any house precedent. Given the circumstances, the point of order is overruled.

AMENDMENT NO. 1 - REMARKS

REPRESENTATIVE SIMMONS: I'm a member of the Texas Conservative Coalition Caucus, and we've had a few questions come up on this bill, if you don't mind.

REPRESENTATIVE LUCIO: I'm glad you're at the back mic, sir. Thank you for engaging in conversation.

SIMMONS: And I appreciate what you said about DFPS not being involved in this, because I wanted to make sure that it's a voluntary program and that the state is not involved other than, what I think you said, through the potential audit. Is that correct?

LUCIO: Correct. What the amendment does is, it says: "The recognition program must provide for the self-evaluation of a before-school or after-school program to determine the program's compliance with the . . . recognition." A program seeking recognition under this section shall evaluate themselves and their compliance with the requirements. So it's self-evaluation, but we are reserving the right, because we don't want people to lie. We don't want them to say, look I'm distinguished as per the bill that was passed, but then we come to find out they're providing unhealthy snacks, they're not making physical activity accessible, and so on.

SIMMONS: So let me ask you this, these programs are already licensed by the state in general, correct?

LUCIO: Yes, sir. We're not creating any additional licensing or licensing requirements.

SIMMONS: Now, these licenses are pretty stringent. In fact, it looks like to me that there must be a 200-page manual for these. So why do you think that—you do you not think that those requirements are stringent enough so that they don't provide unhealthy snacks and all that? What's happened here to cause our concern?

LUCIO: Right, so I wish I were smart enough and worldly enough to say that this is my idea. But from what I've been told by parents and stakeholders that brought me this bill, was that there are a lot of after-school programs that essentially just become a babysitting program, and they're not living up to their promise.

SIMMONS: So you think the state's not even doing its job under the current scenario? You think that's possible?

LUCIO: I don't know. I don't know how much the Department of Family and Protective Services is out there auditing to determine the quality or so on and so forth.

SIMMONS: And we're not going to make them, like you said, make these programs adopt certain nutrition or exercise standards. Even though you and I both agree they probably should, and the parents should hold them accountable to that.

LUCIO: Yes, sir. No, and you have my commitment, sir, that I'm not going to come back next session and say, we did this, now we need a mandate. Absolutely not—I do not want to mandate anything. I do not want to mandate anything, but I do want to be able—look, I'm a parent. I have a seven-year-old and a three-year-old. There are some times they have to be in after-school programs because my wife and I both work. It would just be nice to know, because there are so many options out there, how I can distinguish between what's quality and what's not. And you know, this is strictly saying, hey, I'm going to subject myself to higher standards so that I can demonstrate to parents and the community that I am a good operator.

SIMMONS: So you're committing here today that you're not going to come back next session and try to mandate that? If somebody tries to, you would work with us to try to make sure that we don't put any—you know, grow government in this deal. Would you agree with that?

LUCIO: Absolutely. You know, the last few sessions, I appreciate how expensive mandates can be on programs, on local school districts, on cities, and in addition to that—I know not related to this bill—but all the civil penalties and criminal penalties that we're creating in government.

SIMMONS: You know sometimes they're required, but sometimes they're a burden on business, right?

LUCIO: I hear you. It's my commitment. We can put in the journal. We can put on my Facebook. We can put it on the board, whatever you want to put it on, that I'm not going to come back in my career and say, we need to now mandate this. This is strictly voluntary.

HB 2832 ON SECOND READING (by Oliveira, Flynn, Price, Romero, and Collier)

HB 2832, A bill to be entitled An Act relating to notice by a property owner to a mortgage servicer that the owner intends to enter into a contract with a property tax lender.

HB 2832 - POINT OF ORDER

Representative Tinderholt raised a point of order against further consideration of HB 2832 under Rule 8, Section 1(a) of the House Rules on the grounds that the caption is inaccurate.

(Koop now present)

The speaker overruled the point of order and submitted the following statement:

Representative Tinderholt raised a point of order against further consideration of HB 2832 under Rule 8, Section 1(a) of the House Rules on the grounds that the caption does not give the legislature and the public reasonable notice of the bill's subject. The point of order is respectfully overruled.

The caption reads "relating to notice by a property owner to a mortgage servicer that the owner intends to enter into a contract with a property tax lender." The bill amends Section 32.06 of the Tax Code to require that mortgage servicers receive notice from owners who enter into agreements with "transferees" for repayment of delinquent property taxes. Section 32.06 of the Tax Code governs property tax loans and transfers of liens. Representative Tinderholt asserts that the bill impacts at least some transferees who are not "lenders" because a subset of transferees are not subject to the Property Tax Lender License Act. Section 32.06 defines a "transferee" as "a person who is licensed under Chapter 351, Finance Code, or is exempt from the application of that chapter under Section 351.051(c), Finance Code."

Section 351.051(c) of the Finance Code requires lenders to be licensed (among other requirements), but it expressly makes these requirements inapplicable to:

(1) any of the following entities or an employee of any of the following entities, if the employee is acting for the benefit of the employer:

(A) a bank, savings bank, or savings and loan association, or a subsidiary or an affiliate of a bank, savings bank, or savings and loan association; or

(B) a state or federal credit union, or a subsidiary, affiliate, or credit union service organization of a state or federal credit union; or

(2) an individual who:

(A) is related to the property owner within the second degree of consanguinity or affinity, as determined under Chapter 573, Government Code; or

(B) makes five or fewer property tax loans in any consecutive 12-month period from the individual's own funds. The fact that some transferees are exempt from the requirements of Chapter 351 of the Finance Code does not preclude them from being lenders within the meaning of the property tax loan and transfer of lien law found in Section 32.06 or under the commonly accepted use of the word "lender." Even Representative Tinderholt agrees that all of the transferees are lienholders who loan money for repayment of property taxes. For these reasons, the chair concludes that the caption provided reasonable notice of the bill's subject and did not violate Rule 8, Section 1(a).

HB 2832 was passed to engrossment. (Rinaldi recorded voting no.)
